Dear Tina,

I wanted to let you know that I will be stepping down as Program Director with my last day being October 3rd.

The past two and a half years have been such a gift. I'm so thankful for the opportunities I've had here, the friendships I've made, and all the skills I've learned along the way. This library will always hold a special place in my heart.

It feels like the right time to pass the baton to the next library lover who can bring fresh and creative ideas to the role. I'll still be a patron and a cheerleader for the library, just in a new way.

Thank you for everything.
